

“God Is Always With You”

By McKade Marshall

No matter what you are going through, God never leaves your side. Regardless of where you are in space and time – at work working extra hours or on a fancy cruise line for vacation – God is always with you. He never changes. You can experience His presence and minister to others no matter where you are on your path. Jesus tells us in John 16:33 that no matter where we are in the world, to take heart, because He has already overcome the world!

Whenever I’m flying to Los Angeles, California, driving the sunny shoreline in Corpus Christi, Texas, or cruising up the north toll way in Oklahoma, one thing never changes: God is ALWAYS with me. I am reminded of a picture my dad had in the hallway growing up. On the picture there were two sets of footprints in the sand, but along the way, the two sets of footprints suddenly become only one set of feet, as though the number of those walking along the shoreline went from two people walking to only one. In the poem inscribed on the picture, the narrator asks God, “Why, when I needed you most, you have not been there for me?”, pointing to the places in the sand where the two sets of foot prints turns to only one set. The Lord replies, “The times when you have seen only one set of footprints, is when I carried you.”

Friends, God will never leave you. In times of great sorrow and trial, God will even carry you to get you to the next place in life. Just like the set of footprints going from two to only one, God your Father will pick you up and carry you during times you think you can no longer go on. During the times when things are going well, business is good, the children are doing well, and you are at peace, these are the times you should embrace the friendship of God – like the picture of two friends walking side by side on the shores of the ocean.

(Over)

Since I first started travelling and attending book signings in September, I have learned to really cherish alone time with God. Often I am so busy during the week that by the time it is the weekend, the only time for much solitude is while driving to the next book signing. It is during these road trips I am able to release all my cares, listen to great Christian music on the radio, and talk to God out loud in prayer. It is such a relief to know that God goes with me everywhere I go!

Enclosed with this letter are two new bookmarks and my spring book tour schedule.

“Spring Spectacular 2015” will be my fourth organized book tour, and I am really excited to share all God is doing with you! This will be my longest and busiest book tour to date so I really appreciate all your prayers. Your prayers are what make this ministry possible! Prayers are what lead to divine appointments at these signing events. Every week I have people share with me things on their heart that they need prayer for.

If you have any prayer needs or want to contact me, please do not hesitate to do so! You can reach me via email at mckade@mckademarshall.com or you can write to my Texas mailing address:

McKade Marshall
PO Box 5762
Abilene, Texas 79608

Also, my website is up and available 24/7 with the latest news, information, and products. You can visit www.McKadeMarshall.com anytime, day or night!

Always in His hands,

McKade “Levi” Marshall

Author of “Tasting the Goodness of God : 31 Daily Devotionals for Everyday Living”

